- Standings will be kept on conference website. At the end of the regular season, the top team in each division based on divisional record will be crowned Division Champion and will receive a plaque.
- At the end of the regular season, the top 3 teams in each division based on divisional record will automatically qualify for the conference championship tournament. The tournament is currently scheduled for Saturday April 2nd, 2022 at Shippensburg University. The conference championship tournament field will consist of up to 16 teams. After automatically qualified teams are entered, the remaining field will be filled in by at-large teams selected based on overall record.

- 4) Once a team clinches a spot in the championship tournament, they will be notified by the conference. If a team, for whatever reason, declines their spot in the championship tournament, they must notify the conference at least 1 week prior to the tournament. Spots will then be allocated to teams with the next best overall record.

- 5) The host school will receive an automatic berth in the tournament. If the host school has two teams in the league, only their 1st team will receive and automatic berth. The 2nd team must qualify based on the criteria mentioned above.

- 6) Teams will be seeded for the conference championship tournament based on overall record. The winner of the conference championship tournament will be crowned 2022 MACVC Conference Champion and will receive their awards at the conclusion of the tournament.

- 7) For this season, the MACVC will select an All-Division Team from each division, and an ALL-Conference Team. Up to 7 athletes will be on each All-Conference/All Division Team. All-Conference Teams will be announced at the conclusion of the championship tournament. All Division-Teams will be announced at the conclusion of the regular season. All-Division Team athletes not attending the conference championship tournament will be mailed their awards.
